

FACULTY SENATE RESOLUTION 92-14

RESOLVED, with regard to the February 22, 1993 "Final Report of the Committee on Dead Week and Finals," the Faculty Senate (1) disapproves the recommended campus-wide prohibition (in the second paragraph) of certain tests during the last three class days, believing that such testing should be at the discretion of teachers and departments; (2) approves the recommended restrictions on extracurricular activities and athletic events during those 3 days and the weekend before the Final Exam Period; (3) confirms its support of the present policy requiring a final examination to be given during the Final Exam Period except by advance approval of the Office of Academic Affairs; and (4) directs the Faculty Senate Executive Committee to undertake to resolve or clarify those points by means of discussion with the Office of Academic Affairs and student representatives, and report back to the Senate.
